

Banburyshire Music Library

The Banburyshire Music Library is the latest product from Banburyshire Media, the social enterprise supporting the communities of Banburyshire.

These CDs contain individual copies of the Banburyshire Brolly podcasts, with music and interviews, and can be bought or hired, at a reasonable cost. All rental fees go to the community group who hire out the CDs, and any profit we may make from sales is split between The Friends of the Horton (The League of Friends at the Horton General Hospital in Banbury), and the Banbury Folk Association (who co-ordinate the Banbury Canalside Folk Festival).

Membership of the Banburyshire Music Library is free, and cards can be obtained from the shop at the Horton General Hospital, run by the Friends of the Horton.
